

Impeccable Shine

It's a cruel world general
Sail a ship on a deck full of sin
With an enemy of time
Walk that old Lexington line
With nothing but an impeccable shine

Virginia looks bleaker each day
And the sun needs a beggin to rise
The papers I've signed
With a gun to my side
And nothing but an impeccable shine

Yesterday tomorrow today
They're gonna rise like men always done
They'll serve me no fine
I'll serve me no time
Leave me nothing but an impeccable shine

Rise up Rise up Rise up
For the lord told me always rise up
And march to the rhyme of that old Dixie sign
With nothing but an impeccable shine

Doctor Doctor will I die
As a poor man with the south on his mind
With an enemy of time
I walk that old Lexington line
With nothing but an impeccable shine
With an enemy of time
I walk that old Lexington line
With nothing but an impeccable shine
